

October 10th, 2009

After hearing about Last Day, we knew they were the band we wanted to kick off our new high school ministry program. Not only did we need a band that could draw a good-sized crowd but one that also had a strong Catholic identity. We were happy to discover that Last Day offered the total package.

From start to finish, Last Day's energy on stage was contagious, causing even standoffish students to get on their feet. Christian lyrics and testimonies interwoven throughout the songs brought a depth to the performance that left the crowd with a powerful message they could take home. Not only that, it was refreshing to hear original songs that had a radio-quality sound to them.

A number of students came up to me after performance and commented on how much they liked Last Day. My hopes were confirmed. It was obvious Last Day made an impact that would help our ministry and our students launch off into the school year.

Thank you Last Day for your music and generosity in serving ministries like ours. May God bless you in all you do as you share the life-changing message of Jesus Christ with today's youth!

Sincerely,
Drew Snyder
